

James Anaipakos

Summary

- AML documentation specialist with four years of Government and Compliance experience.
- Three years of experience as project leader, from two to six members.
- One year of experience as technical editor in web, database, and anti-money laundering software architecture.
- Nine months of experience in full-stack JavaScript development and testing.

Experience

2014–Present Capco, Associate Consultant, New York, NY.

- Remediated portion of international bank's $1.45B regulatory fine by stepping into project manager role mid-project and steering the documentation enhancement of an Actimize anti-money laundering application's IT components.
- Updated documentation framework by introducing living documents in SharePoint and requirements filtering that led to a 10x reduction in effort, from 3000 design and testing documents to 300.
- AML/TxM program assessment and gap analysis with global standards.
- Designed and implemented ETL documentation revamp that helped clarify the interfacing between a transaction monitoring application and 70 data warehouses.
- Revamped and successfully-deployed Sharepoint 2013 customer-facing website with 350+ combined pages while working with seven developers and designers.
- Increased client understanding of anti-money laundering with D3, Express, and React application.
- Improved look and feel of Django dashboard while working with UX designer and Python developer.

2015–Present Manning Publications, Manuscript Reviewer, New York, NY.

- Improve six titles prior to publication by testing source code, verifying readability, and offering feedback on reader needs. Titles include CSS in Action, Learn Haskell, and Angular 2 in Action.

2010–2012 Department of Homeland Security, Security Officer, Fort Lauderdale, FL.

- Exhibited critical thinking, subject matter expertise, and decision making by identifying security incidents, recognizing deviating behavioral patterns, and interviewing hundreds of passengers.
- Passed three security drills designed to test alertness and analytical thinking.

Presentations

2015 NYC Media Lab Summit, QuantFlaunt tech demonstration.

New York, NY

2015 IndieCade East, Hardware and Software in Central and Eastern Europe.

Astoria, NY

Education

2015–2013 Masters of Arts, Media Studies, 4.0 GPA.

Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY

2004–2009 Bachelors of Arts, Double Degree, English and Humanities, 3.5 GPA.

Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL

Technical skills

Compliance	Financial Crime, TxM, AML, KYC	Consulting	Management, Business Analysis, Testing
Languages	JavaScript, C, Python, Haskell, D3, Node	Databases	SQL, MongoDB, Mongoose